

Expert Consultation Meeting
Mobile Health Solutions for International Military Medical Missions

MITRE Corporation, 7515 Colshire Drive. McLean, VA 22102

December 11, 2008

Meeting Objectives

- ◆ Gather baseline information on doctrine, health systems and medical operations in targeted countries –Iraq, Afghanistan and Africa--from military, public health and humanitarian perspectives
- ◆ Examine current and emerging applications of mHealth and mobile telemedicine in developing countries
- ◆ Assess priority issues within the DOD for mobile health solutions
- ◆ Explore critical success factors for implementation of mobile health applications
- ◆ Identify potential next steps for multi-sector collaborations.

Agenda

- 07:30- 08:00 Networking Breakfast
- 08:00-08:10 MITRE Welcome
- 08:10- 08:20 Opening – Col Ron Poropatich, MC, USA, Deputy Director, TATRC
- 08:20-08:45 MHS Vision- S. Ward Casscells, MD, Assistant Secretary of Defense- Health Affairs
- 08:45-09:45 Panel 1: Stability Operations: Doctrine, Strategy, Needs for Medical Missions
- 09:45-10:00 Break
- 10:00 -11:00 Panel 2: Global Health Perspectives
- 11:00-11:30 Q&A for Panels 1 & 2
- 11:30-12:30 Lunch
- 12:30-13:30 Panel 3: Government mHealth Projects
- 13:30-14:30 Panel 4: Non-Government mHealth Projects
- 14:30- 15:00 Q&A for Panel 3 & 4
- 15:00-15:15 Break
- 15:15- 16:30 Panel 5: Technology Perspectives- Current State & Horizon
- 16:30- 17:00 Q&A for Panel 5
- 17:00-17:15 Summary & Closing Comments- COL Ron Poropatich