

Chief Master Sergeant Jeffory C. Gabrelcik

Chief Master Sergeant Gabrelcik currently serves as Chief, Air Force Review Boards for the Deputy Secretary of the Air Force, Manpower and Reserve Affairs, Air Force Review Boards Agency. In this role Chief Gabrelcik directly supports the Director of the Air Force Review Boards Agency by advising on matters pertaining to and influencing the health, morale, welfare, and effective utilization of personnel and resources. Chief Gabrelcik is also a participating and voting member on the Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council. He has 22-plus years of personnel (HR) experience and responsibility/experience in casualty reporting, casualty notification and casualty affairs. He has performed duties throughout numerous contingencies as Personnel in Support of Contingency Operations (PERSCO) managing personnel accountability and casualty reporting . Chief Gabrelcik entered the Air Force in 1988 and completed all necessary military education requirements and a multitude of additional professional military and civilian education courses. His deployments in support of numerous military and support operations include Iraq, Turkey, Qatar, United Arab Emirates, England, Italy, Germany, Panama, and Kuwait. He was one of the architects of the DoD Physical Disability Board of Review in 2008 and its future sustainment. Chief Gabrelcik is the recipient of many military awards and honors, including the Meritorious Service Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal, the Air Force Achievement Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Joint Meritorious Unit Award, the National Defense Service Medal with star, , and the NATO Medal.