

Biography

Lynne Oetjen-Gerdes

Lynne is the Deputy Chief of the Mortality Surveillance Division of the Armed Forces Medical Examiner (AFMES), the Director of Research and Operations, MSD, and she is the SR Epidemiologist for the Suicide Reduction and Risk Reduction Committee (SPARRC). She has 15 years experience in Public Health Informatics, Program Evaluation and Outcomes Research with the New York State Departments of Health and Social Services and AFMES. She holds a Masters in Anthropology from the University at Albany, SUNY and is currently nearing completion of a dissertation on risk and outcomes models for Medical Anthropology and System Dynamics.