

Andrew Mazurek, M.S., M.A., M.B.A.

Mr. Mazurek is currently the Managing Director of Navigant Consulting in Chicago, Illinois. Previously, he has worked at the Metis Advisory Group, Ltd. and Perkins & Will, Inc. He has served as a chief planner and a capital program manager for a hospital system, a principal health planner for a national healthcare facilities design firm, and a principal with a national healthcare facilities planning consultancy. Academically, he received a Bachelor of Architecture (magna cum laude) from the Illinois Institute of Technology, a Master of Architecture and Urban Planning from Princeton University, a M.S. in Health Services Planning and Design from Columbia University in New York, and a M.B.A. in Healthcare Administration from the University of Chicago.

He is a member of the American Hospital Association, the American College of Healthcare Executives, and the National Council of Architectural Registration Boards (NCARB). Among his numerous achievements include serving as a consultant for projects at academic medical institutions, such as the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center, Cedars Sinai Medical Center, Duke University Medical Center, University of Illinois Medical Center, and the University of Chicago Hospitals and Health System. Additionally, he has consulted for the Intermountain Health Care of Utah, Carilion Health Care of Virginia, Mercy Health Partners of Cincinnati, Iowa Health System of Iowa, and the Oakwood Health System of Michigan. Mr. Mazurek has also played a pivotal role in replacement hospital projects in Israel, Bahrain, and Kuwait.