

Doug G. Smith, M.D.

Currently, Dr. Douglas Smith is on staff at Harborview Medical Center, University of Washington Medical Center, and Seattle Veterans Administration Medical Center in Seattle, Washington. He also serves as Associate Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Washington in Seattle, Washington. Previously, Dr. Smith served in such academic positions as Acting Instructor in Orthopaedic Surgery and Assistant Professor of Orthopaedic Surgery at the University of Washington. His professional accomplishments include developing footwear to prevent diabetic foot ulcerations and directing a prosthetic research study dedicated to advancing function for the amputee and preserving the limb at risk.

After graduating with a bachelor's degree from the University of Notre Dame in Notre Dame, Indiana, Dr. Smith received his medical degree from the University of Chicago Pritzker School of Medicine in Chicago, Illinois. He completed his residency at Loyola University Medical Center in Maywood, Illinois. Dr. Smith is an active member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons, American Orthopaedic Foot and Ankle Society, Orthopaedic Trauma Association, Orthopaedic Rehabilitation Association, Western Orthopaedic Association, International Society for Prosthetics and Orthotics, Washington State Medical Association, as well as the American Orthopaedic Association.