The Military Health System has joined national efforts to safely and securely share your health care information electronically through the Virtual Lifetime Electronic Record Health Information Exchange (VLER HIE) with other organizations from where you may receive care. By participating in VLER HIE, your health care providers have a more complete view of your health care record. To understand how this affects you, visit www.TRICARE.mil/vler.